

JETBLUE MASTERCARD® REWARD RULES

This document contains the official reward rules for the JetBlue Mastercard account (“Card Account”) issued by Barclays Bank Delaware (“Barclays,” “we,” “us,” or “our”) and includes important conditions and limitations (“Card Account Reward Rules”). Use of your Card Account constitutes your acceptance of each of the terms described below and the terms of the Cardmember Agreement (“Cardmember Agreement”). “You,” “your” or “primary cardmember” means the person who applied for the Card Account. Capitalized terms not defined in these Card Account Reward Rules have the meaning ascribed to them in the Cardmember Agreement.

Barclays is solely responsible for establishing these Card Account Reward Rules and for communicating with JetBlue Airways Corporation (“JetBlue”) as described below to administer the Card Account Reward Rules. Certain Card Account benefits are fulfilled under TrueBlue® (the “Program”), which is a frequent flyer program offered by JetBlue and is not a product or program of Barclays.

JetBlue is solely responsible for establishing the terms and conditions of your participation in the TrueBlue Program, TrueBlue membership account (“Membership Account”) and points (“TrueBlue points”) accumulation therein. Terms and conditions of the Program are published by JetBlue at jetblue.com and JetBlue reserves the right to change or cancel the Program and Program rules at any time with or without prior notice.

Card Account Reward Rules Administration

The Card Account Reward Rules are administered by Barclays located in Wilmington, DE. We reserve the right to modify, amend or terminate the Card Account Reward Rules at any time with or without notice. You can review current Card Account Reward Rules any time by logging in to your Card Account at BarclaysUS.com.

To maintain your eligibility for participation in the Program through use of the Account:

- You must maintain an open Card Account that is in good standing. “Good Standing” means your Card Account is not in default under your Cardmember Agreement with us (in “Good Standing”).
- You must be an individual (corporations, partnerships, and other entities may not participate) and use the Card Account only for personal, family or household expenses.

- If your participation in the Program is cancelled, any TrueBlue points earned during that billing cycle but not yet sent to JetBlue may be forfeited. See jetblue.com for details.
- If your Membership Account is closed, for any reason, your Card Account may be closed. Upon closure of your Membership Account, you will forfeit all Card Account benefits fulfilled under the Program and any TrueBlue points earned during that billing cycle but not yet sent to JetBlue.
- Upon closure of your Card Account, all benefits associated with the Card Account will be forfeited.

Program Membership

- If your Membership Account number was included in the application, we will add that number to your Card Account automatically. We may also use other information on your application to determine if you have a TrueBlue Card Account. If your email account is already associated with a Membership Account that cannot be attributed to you, you may need to provide another email address to register for TrueBlue or you may not be able to access all benefits associated with the Membership Account.
- If the Membership Account number that you provided is found to be invalid or you did not provide us with a Membership Account number, a new Membership Account number will be assigned to you and added to your Card Account.
- Only one Membership Account number will be established per Card Account, and assigned to the primary cardmember on that Card Account.

Earning TrueBlue Points

You earn TrueBlue points for purchases less credits, returns and adjustments (“Net Purchases”) made by you and/or any authorized user(s) of the Card Account as follows:

Eligible JetBlue Purchases are items billed by JetBlue as merchant of record booked through JetBlue channels (jetblue.com, JetBlue reservations, JetBlue Vacations and JetBlue airport ticket counters). Products or services that do not qualify as JetBlue Purchases are car rentals or hotel reservations purchased outside of a JetBlue vacations package, and purchases of TrueBlue points.

- You earn 2 TrueBlue points for every $1 spent on Net Purchases made with the Card Account on goods and services purchased directly at restaurants and eligible grocery stores, as determined by the merchant category code. Qualifying restaurant purchases are categorized as: Restaurants, Bars and Fast Food Restaurants. Qualifying grocery store purchases are categorized as Grocery Stores and Supermarkets. Please note that large warehouse-type stores (Target®, Walmart® and Costco) are generally not classified as grocery stores.
- You earn 1 TrueBlue point for every $1 spent on all other Net Purchases.
- TrueBlue points earned will be posted to the primary cardmember's Membership Account in 4-6 weeks following earning activity.
- Purchases must be submitted by merchants using the merchant category codes for purchases in the above specified categories to qualify for the additional TrueBlue points. Barclays and JetBlue are not responsible for incorrectly coded purchases. Additional TrueBlue points may not be earned if the merchant submits the purchase using a mobile or wireless card reader or if you use a mobile or digital wallet to pay for the purchase. Additionally, purchases made through third parties, including online marketplaces and resellers, or using a third-party payment account will not earn additional TrueBlue points.
- Balance transfers, cash advances (including cash equivalent transactions such as, but not limited to, the use of your Card Account to obtain money orders, traveler's checks, foreign currency and lottery tickets), fees, interest charges and unauthorized/fraudulent purchases are not considered Net Purchases and do not earn TrueBlue points.
